1.0 PREAMBLE

1.1 INTRODUCTION

The Guidance and Counselling learning area is a Form 5 and 6 syllabus premised on the philosophy of Unhu/Ubuntu/Vumunhu. This philosophy encompasses moral development, norms, values and beliefs. The syllabus comprises topics such as Concepts and Principles of Guidance and Counseling, Child Protection, Health, Enterprise and Career Guidance. It strives to inform and equip learners with knowledge to make responsible choices about sexuality, relationships, health related issues as well as other life empowerment skills. It prepares learners for productive adulthood and lifelong learning. This syllabus is designed to enhance active participation of learners through inclusive, culturally relevant, scientifically accurate knowledge and skills, which will produce responsible citizens who will positively contribute towards nation building.

1.2 RATIONALE

Guidance and Counseling is a learning area that endeavors to empower learners with relevant, collaborative and competitive life skills that enable them to live in a dynamic socio-economic and political environment without losing their identity and integrity. The learning area is critical in the development of Unhu/Ubuntu/Vumunhu philosophy that promotes a sense of positive self-image, patriotism, cherishes diversity and celebrates differences among learners. The syllabus fosters self-reliance and prepares learners to cope with developmental changes. It also equips learners with skills to deal with a variety of risk factors such as early marriages, teenage pregnancies, drug and substance abuse, HIV and AIDS and other contemporary challenges.

The Guidance and Counseling syllabus enables learners to develop skills in:

- Collaboration
- Self-management
- Tolerance
- Critical thinking
- Decision making

- Problem solving
- Communication
- Innovation
- Leadership
- Enterprise
- Assertiveness
- Technology

1.3 SUMMARY OF CONTENT

The Form 5 and 6 Guidance and Counselling Syllabus is premised on the principles of Unhu/Ubuntu/Vumunhu to produce learners who are truly Zimbabwean. The content is presented in the following thematic areas:

- Unhu/Ubuntu/Vumunhu (norms and values)
- Concepts and Principles of Counseling
- Relationships
- Child Protection
- Disaster Risk Management
- Health
- Disability
- Enterprise and Career Guidance

1.4 ASSUMPTIONS

It is assumed that learners have:

- some knowledge of the learning area
- experienced some form of guidance and counseling

- an awareness that the entry into adulthood comes with responsibilities
- diverse interests, perceptions, values and abilities
- different interests in enterprise and career choices
- some knowledge of certain child protection laws

1.5 CROSS CUTTING THEMES

The following are some of the cross cutting themes:

- Gender roles
- Child rights
- Sexuality, HIV and AIDS
- Child Protection
- Heritage Studies
- Financial Literacy
- Collaboration
- Environmental issues
- Information and Communications Technology (ICT)

2.0 PRESENTATION OF THE SYLLABUS

The Guidance and Counselling Syllabus is presented as a single document which covers Forms 5 and 6. Some of the topics are developed from the 'O' level syllabus while other topics are new.

3.0 AIMS

The syllabus enables learners to:

- develop the acquired concepts of Unhu/Ubuntu/Vumunhu (norms and values) in all facets of life
- conserve their cultural and national heritage for the development of the society
- celebrate diversity and inclusivity in various social systems
- develop a sense of national identity and patriotism

- develop life skills that enable them to become citizens who appreciate their rights and responsibilities
- exercise positive behaviours and attitudes that prevent the spread of HIV, Sexually Transmitted Infections( STIs) and other health and social concerns
- consider their personal abilities, character traits in relation to others and choice of career paths
- acquire career planning and enterprise skills that contribute to wealth creation and achievement of national development goals

4.0 SYLLABUS OBJECTIVES

By the end of Form 5 and 6 learners should be able to:

- demonstrate an understanding of Unhu/Ubuntu/Vumunhu
- express an appreciation of their cultural and national heritage
- justify the existence of their cultural and national heritage
- illustrate the ability to become responsible citizens who appreciate their rights and responsibilities
- demonstrate comprehensive knowledge of life skills, sexuality and HIV and AIDS
- demonstrate acceptance of people with disabilities and those in difficult circumstances
- express a sense of loyalty and patriotism to their nation
- apply peer counselling skills to various life situations
- demonstrate career planning and enterprise skills that contribute to wealth creation and achievement of national development goals
- identify their personal abilities and character traits in relation to career paths and enterprise

5.0 METHODOLOGY AND TIME ALLOCATION

This learning area is based on an interactive, hands on, multi-cultural and realistic approach. It promotes an awareness of morals, norms and values.

5.1 METHODOLOGY

- Group discussions
- Debate
- Research
- Case study
- Work related learning
- Educational tours
- Seminars
- Drama, song and poetry
- Discovery
- Imitation or Simulation
- Video and film shows
- Games and Quizzes

The above-suggested methods are enhanced through the application of multi-sensory approaches to teaching and principles of individualization, unification, concreteness, stimulation and self-activity.

5.2 TIME ALLOCATION

For adequate coverage of the syllabus a time allocation of four periods of 40 minutes per week should be allocated. It is recommended that learners should go on educational tours at least twice a year.
